

GENERAL RULES:

- All players playing at Boneyard Paintball as well as spectators must turn in a signed waiver or have one on file prior to playing. If a player is under 18 years old, the waiver must be signed by player's parent or legal guardian. Absolutely no exceptions.
- The minimum age to play at Boneyard Paintball is 12 years old.
- Eye protection (approved safety goggles) must be worn at all times when on the playing field or in the designated shooting range/chrono area. No exceptions. Violators are subject to being ejected from game without a refund.
- Markers must be set to semi auto only during open play days.
- All markers must shoot less than 280 FPS. Markers must be chrono'ed before playing.
- Barrel sleeves must be used to cover gun barrels at all times when player is not engaged in a game.
- No shooting (including dry firing) except on the field or in the target range/chrono area. This includes the staging area and parking area.
- No alcohol (during open play) or illegal drugs allowed. Alcohol is allowed for private parties for non-players.
- No loud and/or excessive profanity is allowed.
- Obey the referee. The final call belongs to the ref. The ref is there for your safety.
- Never touch a referee. This is cause for immediate ejection.
- If you become injured, notify a referee immediately. He will assist you and see that appropriate medical aid is summoned.
- All games must be supervised by a staff member at all times.
- Make sure your personal effects and gear are secure in the event that somebody else might like what you have.
- All field fees or gun rentals must be paid in advance of playing.
- All tanks must have current hydros (No Exceptions) before Boneyard Paintball will fill them. CO2 is allowed, but Boneyard Paintball does not fill them.
